RATIFICATION SEEMS ASSURED

All Amendments To Treaty Almost Certain to Be Defeated

SOME RESERVATIONS

Democrats in the Senate Now Admit Fight Over Document Will End in Compromise.

After weeks and months of maneuvering, jockeying, bartering and bargaining, the fight in the Senate over the treaty o fpeace with Germany has reached the stage where certain concrete observations may be made and certain definite facts can be laid down.

In the first place, the treaty will be ratified. That can be stated unreservedly. There is not now a thought of rejection on the part of the great body of the Senate.

In the second place, all amendments to the text of the treaty will be defeated unless a bare majority can be mustered to accept the measure giving America the same voting power in the league council which Great Britain now enjoys.

In the third place, the treaty will not be ratified until the Senate has accepted at least four, and probably six reservations, these reservations to be laid down in the ratification resolution itself.

Democratic leaders know this to be the situation as it stands today, and in private conversation they frankly admit that the result of the treaty fight must be a compromise. But in this compromise the President, they say, has far more to gain than he stands to lose. He wins every point except one. He loses to the extent that the reservations upon which the Senate will insist will be carried in the ratification resolution, instead of in a separate measure of interpetation.

The effort to prevent the Senate from laying down its reservations at the time the treaty is ratified practically has been abandoned by the President's supporters in the Senate. Administration Senators will vote down the opposition program from top to bottom, but it may as well be admitted, and, in fact, is admitted, that the reservationists have the votes with which to control the Senate's action when the time comes to control.

And they have the votes largely for the reason that there is serious revolt on the part of the Democrats against any unconditional ratification of the treaty, or even against mere interpretations set forth in a separate resolution of the Senate. As reckoned today. there are at least five, and probably seven. Democrats who either are for the reservation entirely or are hanging on the very edge.

SUPPDESSES PARLIAMENT

Two Sinn Fein Members of House of Commons Arrested in Dublin

Dublin, Sept. 13.—The Sinn Fein parliament was suppressed yesterday. An extensive police and military movement against the Sinn Fein began this forenoon. The scope and object of the operations were not revealed, but raids by Government forces are reported throughout the country. There were many arrests and seizures of arms and literature.

Two Sinn Fein members of the House of Commons were arrested.

Military lorries carrying prisoners from the outskirts of Dublin are arriving in the city.

The search of the Sinn Fein headquarters here lasted two hours. It included even a personal search of visitors to the premises. The documents seized related to the loan of the Irish public and to the correspondence upon which the report of the American delegates who visited Ireland was based.

An exhaustive search was also made of the private house of Count Plunket and that of the Sinn Fein member of Parliament, Michael Staines.

This is the twelfth raid that had been made upon the Sinn Fein headquarters here, and no prosecutions have followed.

PREPARES TO RETURN ROADS

Orders Companies to Begin Inventories of Supplies as Of December 31.

Washington, Sept. 13.— Preparing for the return of the railroads to private control, Director General Hines yesterday ordered all roads to begin an inventory of supplies on hand as of December 31, 1919, the date indicated by President Wilson in his address to Congress as the termination of Government supervision.

A few weeks before the Government turns the roads back the former managers will be put in charge, so that some time before the Railroad Administration goes out of existence they can reorganize their staffs.

SAYS PLUMB PLAN MUST GO

Lawyer Declares it Means Nationalization of All Industry

Washington, Sept. 13.—The Plumb plan for tripartite control of the railroads under "Government ownership must be "buried beyond all hope" if it is not to be made a "rallying point" for nationalization of all industry. Edgar J. Rich, transportation counsel for the Associated Industries of Massachusetts, declared yesterday before the House Interstate Commerce Committee, considering legislation for final disposition of the railroads.

TO REORGANIZE MILITARY COMPANY

Meeting Will Be Held Thursday Night At Chamber of Commerce

ALL ARE INVITED

Alexandria Has Been Without A Military Company Since Company G, First Virginia Regiment Left.

Alexandria may soon have a military company. Steps looking to the reorganization of Company G, First Virginia Regiment, will be taken at a meeting which will be held at 8 o'clock Thursday night in the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce.

All former members of this command are invited to attend the meeting at which time plans for reorganizing will be discussed. The old Alexandria Light Infantry which is officially Company G. First Virginia Regiment went to war and served throughout the conflict.

Many of its members served overseas with marked distinction. A total of133 members of this company and seven officers left Alexandria September 26, 1917 for Anniston, Ala., where they received their training before being sent overseas.

Its members, however, were assembled at the armory July 25, 1917, where they were kept waiting until the foregoing date. During their wait they received many recruits.

Since this company started on the first lap of its journey for France, in 1917 Alexandria has been without a military company. It is believed that many of those who were former members of the company again will join. Those fostering the organization of the new company are anxious that all who are in the city again join.

SCHOOL VACATION DAYS ARE OVER

Public Schools Will Resume Studies Monday Morning at 9 O'clock

MANY NEW TEACHERS

All in Readiness For Reopening—More Than 2,000 White and 600 Colored Pupils Will Attend.

After being closed for the summer months the public schools of this city will be reopened for studies Monday morning at 9 o'clock.

The work of issuing permits was concluded yesterday afternoon. More than 2,000 white children will attend the schools on the opening day and more than 600 children will attend the colored schools.

All is in readiness for reopening. During the summer months the schools have been given necessary repairs and other improvements also made.

Many new teachers will be in charge Monday. A number of teachers who served at the last scholastic session have resigned to accept other positions.

The opening day of the schools will be given over to organizing. Practically all of the children who secured permits this week have procured their books and are ready to start to school Monday.

MISS MOORE TO BE TRIED ..

Knoxville Court Holds Her Under 10,000 Bond in Harth's Death

Noxville, Sept. 13.—Maude Moore, charged with shooting Leroy Harth to death last Monday night, was held for the November term of criminal court under bond of $10,000, yesterday afternoon, after a preliminary hearing which had lasted through the better part of two days. Martin Hunter, arrested Wednesday as an accessory, was put under bond of $5,000.

Miss Moore readily furnished bond, while Hunter was still in custody. Miss Moore was on the stand more than an hour yesterday. At the conclusion of her testimony, as she arose from the witness chair, her strength seemed to give away, her face blanched and she fell headlong, almost into the lap of her mother, who was sitting near the desk of the defending attorney, Hal H. Clements. It was some minutes before she regained consciousness and almost two hours before she had sufficiently regained strength to sit upright. Proceedings were halted for 15 or 20 minutes.

While on the stand Miss Moore related again the details of the struggle she claims took place between Harth and herself when, she alleges, he attacked he,r and she shot him in self defense.

Hunter admitted having written a note which was found in his room Thursday, which was introduced in an effort to show that he had intended to leave the city.

The note read: "Tear those letters up. To Ollie, old pal. I am gone. Please keep quiet.—Pal Martin."

R. A. Slagle, paying teller at the East Tennessee Savings Bank, testified that the defendant, whom he said he knew as Naudeene Moore, drew out all of her savings at his bank last Monday. He said she remarked to him that she was "going West." However on cross examination, Mr. Slagle said he could not be positive that she said she was going West, adding that she may have said she was going away."

POLICE PLAY LOSING GROUND

Members of Boston Would Return to Posts of Duty

ORDER IS RESTORED

Splendid Work of State Guardsmen Becomes More Apparent Hourly, as Lawlessness Vanished.

Boston, Sept. 13.—The policemen's union voted last night to accept Samuel Gompers' proposal that they return to duty and appointed a committee to wait on Governor Coolidge and Mayor Peters in the morning to arrange for carrying out the suggestion.

With the splendid work of the State Guardsmen, which has become hourly more efficient, it was apparent early yesterday that the striking policemen were playing a losing game. Lawlessness had been completely stamped out and in addition, public opinion was determinedly crystallized aganst them.

Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, yesterday telegraphed an appeal from New York to both strikers and city officials of Boston to lay aside their grievances until the National Labor Conference called by President Wilson for October 6 in Washington.

Gompers first telegraphed Mayor Andrew J. Peters, asking that the city withdraw for the time being the edict forbidding policemen of Boston from joining the American Federation of Labor.

At the same time Gompers appealed through A. F. of L. officials in Washington to the policemen asking them to go back to their posts regardless of what the city officials do.

MYSTERIOUS MURDER

Washington Groceryman Shot Down in His Store Last Night

Simon Miller, 30 years old, proprietor of a small grocery store at 1001 Lamont street northwest, Washington, D. C., was shot through the neck by an undentified person at 10:30 o'clock last night while behind the counter of his shop and died later at Garfield Hospital.

The police, up to an early hour this morning, were uanble to ascertain a motive for the shooting.

Samuel Miller, brother of the dead man, heard a single shot fired, He was on the second floor of the two-story brick building. Rushing down stairs, he found his brother lying unconscious on the floor of the kitchen, which is in the rear of the store.

The police arrived shortly after the crime, following an excited call from neighbors, who had been attracted by screams of the victim's brother.

It was immediately ascertained that robbery was not the motive for the shooting when $57 was found in Miller's pocket and a considerable sum in the cash drawer.

A hole was torn through Miller's neck.

Up to an early hour this morning the shooting was a complete mystery.

BODIES BURIED IN RUINS

Milan, Sept. 13.—Many persons are believed to have perished and their bodies buried in the ruins as the result of an earthquake in Tuscany today, said a dispatch to the Secolo.

The shocks were felt throughout the Sienna district and many buildings were demolished.

In addition to the dead many persons were injured.

LANSING AND THE TREATY

W. C.Bullitt Quotes Secretary as Saying that if Americans Understood its Meaning They Would Reject It.

Washington, Sept. 3.—William C. Bullitt of Philadelphia, formerly attached to the American Peace Mission, testified before the Senate Foreign Relations Committee yesterday that secretary Lansing told him in Paris last May that if "the Senate and the American people knew what the treaty meant, it would be defeated."

"Mr. Lansing told me the day I resigned," the witness said, "that he was opposed to that part of the League covenant relating to a mandate for Armenia. He said he considered the Shantung award and the League of Nations bad— that the League would be entirely useless that the nations had arranged the wold to suit themselves and that England and France got what they wanted.

'fter saying he believed the Senate would defeat the treaty if it realzed its meaning, Mr. Lansing expressed the opinion that Senator Knox really wound understand the treaty, that Mr. Lodge would, but that Mr. Lodge's position would become purely political.'

BASEBALL TOMORROW

Cardinals and Clarendons Will Play Championship Game

The Clarendon and Cardinal Baseball teams will at 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon play the deciding game for the championship of northern Virginia. "A CRIME AGAINST CIVILIZATION"

It is the consenus of opinion of most of our contemporaries that President Wilson summed up the moral side of the Boston police strike when he declared in an address at Helena, Mont., that for the guardians of law and order to leave a city "at the mercy of thugs is a crime against civilization."

As the Baltimore Sun says, "policemen and firemen are trustees of the public welfare. They occupy positions of special trust and responsibility. Communities look to them as the protectors of life and property. They accept that responsibility when they undertake such service. To deliberately abandon a community to its enemies of the underworld is as grave an offense morally as for a soldier to desert his post. Practically it is an even greater offense, because it exposes women and children to all the perils involved in subjecting the community to mobs of criminals and out laws. It is a flagrant breach of trust, a tacit partnership with elements which the police are pledged to suppress.

"There can be no compromise with those who commit this crime, no tolerance in considering it. Men who do it break faith with their fellow-citizens and ally themselves with the foes of government and society. they are no longer to be trusted They have shown that they are lacking in the sense of moral responsibility and loyalty.

"We are glad to see that these are members of the Senate who have the courage to speak the truth boldly on this and kindred subjects just now. Senator John Sharp Williams delivered a notable warning in the Senate last week (published in the Gazette) against labor excesses, and when the railroad men some weeks ago threatened to take the country by the throat Senator Thomas, of Colorado, spoke out like a man and an American.

The deliberate effort to place all American cities under the virtual control of the American Federation of Labor is to be deplored. If it is not sternly checked at once, no one can foretell what the end will be.

"It is as impossible for a police force as it is for an individual to serve two masters. The only reason for unionizing the police is to put them under the protection of the federation and to enable them to defy the constituted authorities. That is the issue in a nutshell, and nothing can give it any other significance. It is an issue of sovereignty, and we do not believe the American people are ready to renounce their sovereignty in favor of any class or any organization, be it organized labor or organized capital."

ORGANIZED RELIGION

Bernard Iddings Bell, in the Atlantic Monthly says most modern American young men care little or nothing about organized religion. They are not antireligious.

They render to the churches a formal respect. Only 2 per cent. who entered the station (Great Lakes) declared a preference for some church or other. For the most part, however, this connection had been purely nominal. Religion, as a real motive power, it is safe to say is unknown to at least 80 per cent. of them.

Spirituality, as presented by the churches, has impressed them as not mattering much. With a majority of them, church-going is a thing done almost solely for family reasons, or in smaller places for social reasons. In many little Western towns the church is the only rallying place for young people. Many fellows go because they want girls, not because they seek God. When they leave home they naturally stop going.

Despite all the Sunday Schools, young peoples, societies, clubs, guilds, parish houses and the rest, the churches ought to recognize that they have never gained the interest and enthusiasm of 8 out of 10 of the generation just coming to maturity. As far as vital motivations go, these fellows are not Christians at all, but merely more or less decent young pagans.

NEIGHBORS' JARS

Mrs. Nellie Hickey, a widow of Baltimore, who has five small children, was accused by Mrs. Ida Lathan, before Justice Potee one day this week of disturbing the peace and vilifying the name of her departed husband. Mrs. Lathan denied the charge, and said the whole trouble was over a baby carriage, which her neighbors didn't want on the pavement. She also said the "children often made faces" at her.

In the investigation of the case it was shown that a minister of the gospel had endeavored to bring about a better understanding between the "Capets and the Montagues,' but to no purpose. The charge was dismissed.

Neighborhood rows are the most trying matters that come before police courts. This is realized by all who have ever been called upon to mete out justice in such temples. Complainants and defendants come to court flushed by excitement and each believes she is right and should be sustained. It may seem strange, but it is a fact nevertheless, that occasionally infants in arms have been the primary cause of the disturbance of relations between persons living near each other. It was charged in the Police Court of Alexandria several years ago that a fourteen months old baby made faces at the complainant. The basis of a case last week was the allegation that a woman had said her neighbor's child was "no good."

In the great majority of cases fines are not imposed, but the incensed parties are told to go home and live neighborly toward each other.

THE LEAGUE OF NATIONS

Senators of all sorts have made speeches galore concerning the Peace Treaty and the League of Nations until the country is tired out listening to them says the Philadelphia Inquirer." The President is now on a western trip giving his interpretations of what the League covenant means. Surely every intelligent person ought by this time to have a tolerably good idea of what it is all about.

"Men who can rise superior to partisanship and judge the covenant by the language of it certainly find few difficulties. Mr. Borah and his followers tell us that the League means war. But the covenant itself spells peace. The central idea of it is to promote peace and make war all but impossible. Every member of the League agrees to submit to arbitration all questions of international disputes. If they prefer, they can call upon the Council of the League. Six months are allowed for discussions. If the decision, either by the arbiters or by the Council, is rejected by either disputant, three months must elapse before resorting to war. Such a delay would bring publicity to bear and render actual actual hostilities almost out of the question.

We have said that each member of the League agrees to pursue this course. But if a government repudiates its agreement, it will be very quickly brought to terms, for immediately a boycott will be established against it by every other government, thereby cutting it off from all communication. No nation could cope with such a situation. It is exceedingly difficult to understand where certain radical Senators get their notion that the United States would be constant danger of being plunged into war at the command of the League Council. In no case could war be declared against an offending nation except as a last resort, and it is inconceivable that such a resort would be necessary The peaceful boycott should serve every purpose.

"But should war be deemed essential by the Council, it could not declare it. It could only advise the different governments what, in its opinion, should be done. That advice, in the instance of the United States, would be sent to Congress for its action. What is more, that advise could be forwarded only by the unanimous consent of the nine members of the Council, and no representative of the United States sitting as a member of that Council would act except by instructions of his own government.

In simple terms, that is the gist of the League covenant over which there has been so much bitterness. The United States is in no danger. It parts with no more of its sovereignty than it parts with whenever it enters into a treaty. The Monroe Doctrine is protected by special provision of the covenant. All domestic matters, such as immigration, commerce, the tariff and coastwise trade are in nowise involved. We can withdraw from membership by giving a two years' notice."

THEN AND NOW

Many years ago the chief proofreader of the London Times became confused in spelling an obsolete word. He realized his responsibility. Every word must be spelled correctly in the "Thunderer." He was unable to find anything or anybody able to set him right in London, and the nearest point where the information the proofreader could be procured was twenty-five miles away. He obtained a horse and made the round trip before the Times was put to press, and the word appeared correctly in the next day's edition.

This incident was brought to mind when we read yesterday of several proofreaders in the Government Printing Office being suspended for an hours for allowing the name of a soldier to be spelled incorrectly. It was stated that the union would take up the matter of suspension.

COMMONWEALTH OF VIRGINIA

OFFICE OF

CLERK OF THE HOUSE OF DELEGATES

PROPOSED AMENDMENTS to the Constitution of Virginia, agreed to at session of General Assembly 1918, and published in pursuance of section 196 of the Constitution and act approved February 3, 1908.

A RESOLUTION proposing amendment to section 32 of article 2 of the Constitution of Virginia, and providing for publishing said amendment and certifying the same to the next general assembly.

Resolved by the senate, the house of delegates concurring (a majority of the members elected to each house agreeing), That the following amendment to the Constitution of Virginia be, and the same is hereby proposed, and referred to the general assembly to be chosen at the next general election of members of the house of delegates, for its concurrence, in conformity with the provisions of section one hundred and ninety-six, of article fifteen of the said Constitution, namely:

Strike out from the Constitution of Virginia section thirty-two, which is in the following words:

Sec. 32. Every person qualified to vote shall be eligible to any office of the State, or of any county, city, town or other subdivision of the State, wherein he resides, except as otherwise provided in this Constitution, and except that this provision as to residence shall not apply to any office elective by the people where the law provides otherwise. Men and women eighteen years of age shall be eligible to the office of notary public, and qualified to execute the bonds required of them in that capacity.

And insert in lieu thereof the following:

Sec. 32. Every person qualified to vote shall be eligible to any office of the State, or of any county, city, town or other subdivision of the State, wherein he resides, except as otherwise provided in this Constitution, and except that this provision as to residence shall not apply to any office elective by the people where the law provides otherwise; and except further, that the requirements of this section as to residence and voting qualifications shall not apply in the appointment of persons to fill positions under a municipal government requiring special technical or professional training and experience. Men and women eighteen years of age shall be eligible to the office of notary public and qualified to execute the bonds required of them in that capacity.

A RESOLUTION proposing amendment to section 138 of the Constitution of Virginia.

Resolved by the senate, the house of delegates concurring, (a majority of the members elected to each house agreeing), That the following amendment to the Constitution of Virginia be, and the same is hereby proposed, and referred to the general assembly to be chosen at the next general election of members of the house of delegates, for its concurrence, in conformity with the provisions of section one hundred and ninety-six, of article fifteen, of the said Constitution, namely:

Strike out from the Constitution of Virginia section one hundred and thirty-eight, which is in the following words:

Section 138. The general assembly may, in its discretion provide for the compulsory education of children between the ages of eight and twelve years, except such as are weak in body or mind, or can read and write, or are attending private schools, or are excused for cause by the district school trustees.

And insert in lieu thereof the following:

Section 138. The general assembly may, in its discretion, provide for the compulsory education of children of school age.

A RESOLUTION proposing amendment to section 117 of article 8 of the Constitution of Virginia, and providing for publishing said amendment and certifying the same to the next general assembly.

Resolved by the senate and the house of delegates (a majority of the members elected to each house agreeing thereto), That the following amendment to the Constitution of Virginia be, and the same is hereby, proposed and referred to the general assembly to be chosen at the next general election of senators and members of the house of delegates, for its concurrence, in conformity to the provisions of section one hundred and ninety-six of article fifteen of said Constitution, namely:

Strike out from the Constitution of Virginia section one hundred and seventeen, which is in the words and figures following, to-wit:

Section 117. General laws for the organization and government of cities and towns shall be enacted by the general assembly, and no special act shall be passed in relation thereto, except in the manner provided in article four of this Constitution, and then only by a recorded vote of two-thirds of the members elected to each house; and except also in the case of cities having more than fifty thousand inhabitants, as hereinafter provided. But each of the cities and towns of the State having at the time of the adoption of this amendment a municipal charter may retain the same, except so far as it shall be repealed or amended by the general assembly; provided, that every such charter is hereby amended so as to conform to all the provisions, restrictions, limitations and powers set forth in this article, or otherwise provided in this Constitution.

Notwithstanding, however, anything in this article contained the general assembly may, by general law or by special act (passed as prescribed in article four of this Constitution), depart in any respect (except as otherwise in this section expressly provided) from the form of organization and government prescribed by this article for cities and towns, and may provide, from time to time, for the various cities and towns of the Commonwealth such form or forms of municipal government as the general assembly may deem best; but no form or forms of government authorized by the second paragraph of this section shall become operative except as to such cities or towns as may thereafter adopt the same by a majority vote of its qualified electors at an election to be held as may be prescribed therefor by law. All the limitations on the powers of the councils of cities and towns imposed by this article shall apply in like manner to the principal legislative authority under any form of government which may be authorized hereunder. The term "council" as used in sections one hundred and twenty-five and one hundred and twenty-seven of this Constitution shall be construed to include the body which, under any form of municipal government, shall be vested with the principal legislative authority of such municipality.

The general assembly, for the purpose of this article, may classify cities according to their population but the maximum population prescribed for any class shall exceed the minimum population for the same class by at least ten thousand. The general assembly, at the request, made in manner which may be prescribed by law, of any city having a population of over fifty thousand inhabitants, may grant a special form of government for such city.

Any laws or charters enacted pursuant to the provisions of this section shall be subject to the provisions of this Constitution relating expressly to judges and clerks of courts, attorneys for the Commonwealth, commissioners of revenue, city treasurers and city sergeants.

And insert in lieu thereof the following:

Sec. 117. (a) General laws for the organization and government of cities and towns shall be enacted by the general assembly, and no special act shall be passed in relation thereto, except in the manner provided in article four of this Constitution, and then only by a recorded vote of two-thirds of the members elected to each house. But each of the cities and towns of the State having at the time of the adoption of this Constitution a municipal charter may retain the same, except so far as it shall be repealed or amended by the general assembly; provided, that every such charter is hereby amended to conform to all the provisions, restrictions, limitations and powers set forth in this article, or otherwise provided in this Constitution.

(b) The general assembly may, by general law or by special act, (passed in the manner provided in article four of this Constitution) provide for the organization and government of cities and towns without regard to, and unaffected by any of the provisions of this article, except those of sections one hundred and twenty-four, one hundred and twenty-five, (except so far as the provisions of section one hundred and twenty-five recognize the office of mayor and the power of veto) one hundred and twenty-six one hundred and twenty-seven and one hundred and twenty-eight of this article and except those mentioned in sub-section (d) of this section. The term "Council" as used in any of said sections shall include the body exercising legislative authority for the city or town, and all ordinances enacted and resolutions adopted by such body shall have the same force and effect for all purposes, as if enacted or adopted in accordance with the provisions of section one hundred and twenty-three of this article. But such organization and government shall apply only to such cities or towns as may thereafter adopt the same by a majority vote of those qualified voters of any such city or town voting in an election to be held for the purpose, as may be provided by law.

(c) The general assembly, at the request of any city or town made in manner provided by law, may grant to it any special form of organization and government authorized by sub-section (b) of this section, and subject to all of the provisions of that sub-section, except that it shall not be necessary for such city or town to thereafter adopt the same.

(d) Any laws or charters enacted pursuant to the provisions of this section shall be subject to the provisions of this Constitution relating expressly to judges and clerks of courts, attorneys for the Commonwealth, commissioners of revenue, city treasurers and city sergeants.

(e) Any form of organization and government authorized by any provision of this section which may have been adopted heretofore by any city or town pursuant to any act of the general assembly enacted before such provision became effective, and which is now in operation, is hereby declared legal and valid ab initio, and shall have the same force and effect as if it had been authorized by this Constitution at the time of its adoption.

A RESOLUTION proposing amendment to section 133 of article 9 of the Constitution of Virginia.

Resolved by the house of delegates, the senate concurring (the majority of the members elected to each house agreeing thereto), That the following amendment to section one hundred and thirty-three, article of the Constitution of Virginia, be and is hereby proposed and referred to the general assembly at the first regular session held after the next election of members of the house of delegates for its concurrence in conformity with the provisions of section one hundred and ninety-six, of article fifteen of said Constitution, namely:

Strike out from the Constitution of Virginia section one hundred and thirty-three of article nine, which is in the following words:

Section 133. Each magisterial district shall constitute a separate school district, unless otherwise provided by law. In each school district there shall be three trustees selected, in the manner and for the term of office prescribed by law.

And insert in lieu thereof the following:

Section 133. Each magisterial district shall constitute a separate school district, unless otherwise provided by law. In each school district there shall be not more than three trustees selected, in the manner and for the term of office prescribed by law.

Men and women may serve as school trustees in said districts, and in cities and in towns forming separate school districts.

A RESOLUTION proposing amendment to section 184 of the Constitution of Virginia.

Resolved by the house of delegates, the senate concurring (a majority of the members elected to each house agreeing) That the following amendment to the Constitution of Virginia be, and the same is hereby proposed, and referred to the general assembly to be chosen at the next general election of members of the house of delegates, for its concurrence, in conformity with the provisions of section one hundred and ninety-six, of article fifteen, of the said Constitution, namely:

Strike out from the Constitution of Virginia section one hundred and eighty-four, which is in the following words:

Section 184. No debt shall be contracted by the State except to meet casual deficits in the revenue, to redeem a previous liability of the State, to suppress insurrection, repel invasion, or defend the State in time of war. No scrip, certificate, or other evidence of State indebtedness, shall be issued, except for the transfer or redemption of stock previously issued, or for such debts as are expressly authorized by this Constitution.

And insert in lieu thereof the following:

Section 184. No debt shall be contracted by the State except to construct, or reconstruct, public roads, to meet casual deficits in the revenue, to redeem a previous liability of the State, to suppress insurrection, repel invasion, or defend the State in time of war. No scrip, certificate, or other evidence of State indebtedness, shall be issued except for the transfer or redemption of stock previously issued, or for such debts as are expressly authorized in this Constitution.

A RESOLUTION proposing an amendment to section 136 of article 9 of the Constitution of Virginia, and providing for publishing said amendment and certifying the same to the next session of the general assembly.

Resolved by the house of delegates, the senate concurring (a majority of the members elected to each house agreeing), That the following amendment to the Constitution of Virginia be, and the same is hereby, proposed, and referred to the general assembly to be chosen at the next general election of members of the house of delegates, for its concurrence, in conformity with the provisions of section one hundred and ninety-six, of article fifteen, of the said Constitution, namely:

Strike out from the Constitution of Virginia section one hundred and thirty-six, which is in the following words:

Section 136. Each county, city, town, if the same be a separate school district, and school district is authorized to raise additional sums by a tax on property, not to exceed in the aggregate five mills on the dollar in any one year, to be apportioned and expended by the local school authorities of said counties, cities, towns and districts in establishing and maintaining such schools as in their judgment the public welfare may require; provided, that such primary schools as may be established in any school year, shall be maintained at least four months of that school year, before any part of the fund assessed and collected may be devoted to the establishment of schools of higher grade. The boards of supervisors of the several counties, and the councils of the several cities, and towns if the same be separate school districts, shall provide for the levy and collection of such local school taxes.

And insert in lieu thereof the following:

Section 136. Each county, city, town, if the same be a separate school district, and school district is authorized to raise additional sums by a tax on property, not to exceed in the aggregate in any one year a rate of levy to be fixed by law, to be apportioned and expended by the local school authorities of said counties, cities, towns and districts in establishing and maintaining such schools as in their judgment the public welfare may require; provided that such primary schools as may be established in any school year, shall be maintained at least four months of that school year, before any part of the fund assessed and collected may be devoted to the establishment of schools of higher grade. The boards of supervisors of the several counties, and the councils of the several cities, and towns of the same be separate school districts, shall provide for the levy and collection of such local school taxes.

I hereby certify that the foregoing is a true copy of amendments proposed to the Constitution and agreed to by the General Assembly of Virginia, session 1918, and the same is published in pursuance of section 196 of the Constitution and act of the General Assembly, approved February 3, 1908.

Clerk House of Delegates of Virginia.

3½

You Buyers of 3½ Inch Tires

You represent over half the tire buyers of the world. You deserve special consideration. Your volume of demand calls for the biggest value.

Recognizing this, Firestone has built a special $7,000,000 factory for you.

Firestone engineers designed special machinery for your tire and special looms to weave your fabric.

And this factory is operated by an organization all of which is devoted entirely to your requirements.

The methods and machinery of this factory leave no room for errors or flaws.

Result: This special molded tire is the nearest thing to a perfect tire building job that engineering can give you.

Yet by saving from 10% to 30% on every factory operation, you get this extra mileage tire at a price that some pay even for the "off brand" kinds.

You get a 6,000 mile adjustment basis. You get it from Firestone.

Firestone, always in the front in value-giving, now jumps years ahead of the field. And you users of 3½-inch tires get the benefit.

30x3½, non-skid, $18.00
32x3½, non-skid, 21.00

Any one of the 42,000 dealers who bank on Firestone quality will put these money-saving tires on your car. Have them put on all four wheels and ride at the rate of—

HON. J. H. DODGE

Candidate for State Senate

(This brief biographical sketch is published for the information of those who are not acquainted personally with Mr. Dodge.)

J. H. Dodge was reared on a farm just east of the town of Manassas, Va. He is a scientific, technically trained, practical farmer, educator, and business man. He is in every sense a true Southern gentleman, having secured his education in the public and private schools of Manassas, at the Virginia State Normal, at the college of William and Mary and at the University of Virginia. He has also studied in Baltimore, Chicago, and other educational centers. In his teaching experience, he has filled the following positions with marked success. Instructor in State Model School at Williamsburg, Principal of the Herndon Graded and High School, President of Tazewell College, and at at Tazewell, Virginia, founded and established his own business and normal college which he conducted with marked business ability for six years until it was unfortunately destroyed by fire; he was for a period of years supervising principal of two of the largest high schools of Wise County, and also Principal of the Phoebus schools. He has for the past ten years, resided on his farm one mile south of Manassas where he has followed intensive farming combining with it a part of the time, educational work as Professor of the Chair of Mathematics and Accounting in Eastern College.

Mr. Dodge is a widely experienced, liberal, broad minded, public spirited citizen. From mere youth, he has always taken a very active part in all that tends to the betterment of the communities in which he has lived; is an active member of the Red Cross, Farmers' Institute, Civic League, etc. He is an officer of the Presbyterian Church and Superintendent of the Sunday School, a director of the Fair Association, State Forest Warden for Northern Virginia, etc., etc.

Mr. Dodge is forty-five years old and in 1909, he married a Miss Fitzhugh-Dunnaway of prominent Virginia families. He would make an able, efficient and dignified representative in the General Assembly.

REPUBLICAN PLATFORM

The Republicans of the fourteenth Senatorial District of Virginia submit to the voters thereof the following declaration of principles:

1. The election laws of our state are a travesty on justice and a crime against true democracy. To preserve the republican form of government in the state as guaranteed by the Bill of Rights of Virginia, we favor materially amending our election laws so to make it easier for all honorable citizens to freely exercise the rights of suffrage.

2. We favor the widest possible extension of our public school system and insist that large appropriations shall not be made to the higher institutions of learning of the state at the expense of the common schools.

3. We declare in favor of the abolition of the useless multiplication of offices in the state with the taxes to sustain the same.

4. We favor co-operating with the national government in road construction in our state and the widest possible extension of our good roads system to the end that the farmer may be connected with the station and the market so that country produce may be gotten to the consumer as cheaply as possble and thus bring down the high cost of living.

5. We favor the election of all officers by the people served.

6. We declare our sympathy with the working people and the farmer and shall favor legislation to prevent profiteering by middlemen and speculators, and to encourage production, thus reducing the cost of food, fuel, clothing and other necessaries of life.

7 We favor a business like arrangement of the tax laws of the state so they will be readily understood and not be as at present, a source of irritation and conflict.

8. We favor business economy and efficiency in public office and demand the proper auditing of the books of public officials.

On August 18th, Professor J. H. Dodge accepted our nomination on the above platform and all Republicans are hereby requested to give his candidacy their heartiest support.

Republican District Committee.

FARMER ASSAULTED IN HOME

Danville, Va., Sept. 13.—N. C. Cassell, a farmer living near Rocky Mount, was assaulted on Tuesday by men believed to be moonshiners, according to a message received from Franklin county.

Two white men went to Cassell's house, near the county seat, and accused him of reporting illicit stills to revenue agents. They hit him on the back of the head with a stone, making an ugly wound, after which they ordered him into the woods at the point of a pistol, threatening him with further injury. By a ruse he escaped and made for Rocky Mount.

ALEXANDRIA WITNESSES

The Names or Alexandria Persons Familiar To All

Who are the witnesses?

They are Alexandria people—

Residents of Alexandria who have had kidney backache, kidney ills, bladder ills; who have used Doan's Kidney Pills. These witnesses endorse Doan's.

One Alexandria resident who speaks is B. C. Hall, 115 South Payne St., He says: "My kidneys were so sore I could hardly get up or down. I was so weak and lame across my back it was all I could do to bend over and face up my shoes. I was always in misery no matter what position I was in. On top of all that I suffered from headaches and nervousness and my kidneys acted so freely at night I couldn't get any rest. When someone told me about Doan's Kidney Pills I was about used up. I got Doan's at Ashton's Drug Store and you can believe me I was surprised at the quick cure I got. I have had no return of kidney trouble since using Doan's".

ELECTON NOTICE

At a Circuit Court of the City of Alexandria, continued and held at the Court house of said city on Wednesday, July 9th, 1919. Present. Hon. Samuel G. Brent, Judge.

In the matter of the petition of electors for a change in the form of government for the city of Alexandria, Virginia, under the act of the General Assembly, approved March 20, 1916.

And this day again came the petitioners and again presented their petitions prepared and executed in due form of law, of electors of the City of Alexandria, equal in number to at least ten per cent. of those qualified to vote at the last preceding general election, at which a mayor or council was elected, and specifying in said petitions the particular form of government permitted under an act of the General Assembly approved March 20, 1916, as amended, and which form they wish to adopt, including the number of councilmen, namely five, to be elected at large and to serve without compensation, and asking that an election be held, as provided in said act; and said petition being in all respects in conformity with the provisions and requirements of said act.

It is therefore ordered that E. E. Downham, Richard E. Sweeney, and T. A. Moore, or their successors in office comprising the Electoral board of the City of Alexandria, Virginia, be, and they are hereby directed to take such steps and prepare such means as may be necessary to submit to the qualified voters of the city of Alexandria, Virginia, at an election which said electoral board is hereby directed to hold on the 23rd day of September, 1919, for determination of the question of whether said proposed change in the form of government of the City of Alexandria, shall be adopted or not.

Said election shall be conducted in the manner prescribed by law for the conduct of regular election, and by the regular election officers of said city.

And it is further ordered that a copy of this order be published in the Alexandria Gazette, a newspaper published in the City of Alexandria, for at least thirty days prior to said election and said electoral board is further directed to give all due publicity to said election, that under the law they are required to give of regular elections.

And the Clerk of this Court is directed to transmit a copy of this order to each member of the electoral board.

TERRIBLY SWOLLEN
Suffering Described as Torture Relieved by Black-Draught

Rossville, Ga.—Mrs. Kate Lee Able, of this place, writes: "My husband is an engineer, and once while lifting, he injured himself with a piece of heavy machinery, across the abdomen. He was so sore he could not bear to press on himself at all, on chest or abdomen. He weighed 165 lbs., and fell off until he weighed 110 lbs., in two weeks.

He became constipated and it looked like he would die. We had three different doctors, yet with all their medicine, his bowels failed to act. He would catch me, and I got so I castor oil, and drink it two or three days in succession. He did this yet without result. We became desperate, he suffered so. He was swollen terribly. He told me his suffering could only be decribed as torture.

I sent and bought Theford's Black-Draught. I made him take a big dose, and when it began to act he fainted, he was in such misery, but he got relief and began to mend at once. He got well, and we both feel he owes his life to Theford's Black-Draught."

Theford's Black-Draught will help you to keep fit, ready for the day's work. Try it! NC-131

Spanish Woman Shoots Man Through Heart Alleging Brutal Treatment of Family

Wilmington, Del. Sept. 13.—Lee Cabaera, aged 33 years, was shot through the heart and instantly killed by his wife, Maria, aged 23 years, at their home early yesterday morning.

The shooting followed an all night quarrel between the couple.

Mrs. Cabarera, after being arrested, admitted the shooting and said the act was incited by her husband's brutal treatment of her and their children. The coupqle are Spaniards and came here from Cuba.

THEATRES

GRAND THEATRE

George Walsh at the Grand Theatre tonight for one day's showing of his latest William Fox production, "The Yankee Way."

This is another of George's smile-a-minute dramas and is up to the Fox standard in every respect.

The action of the story takes George to Lithunia, a small Balkan state, to manage his father's cattle concession Before sailing he falls in love with a brunette beauty. He also meets her on the ship. He runs across her again in Lithunia when he finds out she is Princess Alexia, ruler of the principality.

George dares to make love to the Princess and although she returns his love diplomatic reasons compel her to accept Count Vortsky.

To add to the troubles in Lithunia the people start a revolt. George settles this with American gold and returns to his Princess only to find that she and the Count are to be married next day.

But George's two pals whom he took with him from the states bundle the Count into a box car and ship him to Bulgaria. See it. Also Mutt-Jeff cartoon.

RICHMOND THEATRE

A powerful, imaginative new producer of motion pictures has sprung into the front rank to challenge world recognition in J. Parker Read, Jr., whose big emotional drama, "Sahara," starring Louise Glaum in a story by C. Gardner Sullivan, and supervised by Allan Dwan, is the attraction tonight at the Richmond Theatre. "Sahara" is hailed everywhere as being the big production of the year in motion pictures; a rich, luxurious emotional drama of Paris, Cairo and the Egyptian desert, from which it derives its colorful name.

INGOMAR THEATRE

When four stars of the recognized ability of Ben Wilson, Neva Gerber, Rosemary Theby and Murdock MacQuarrie are assembled in the same cast and when this quartette interprets the action of a stirring melodrama as "When a Woman Strikes" presents, lovers of the silent drama are assured a picture that holds tense interest for them. This is the offerng the management of the Ingomar Theatre has for his patrons tonight.

SHIPYARD DIAMOND,

SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 14, 3 P. M.

To Our Patrons

Alexandria, Va., June 2, 1919.

In line with our progressive banking methods, and to meet the demands of our patrons, we are installing on July 1st, an up-to-date Safe Deposit Department, under the personal supervision of one of our officers.

This has been made necessary from the fact that a large number of our depositors owning Liberty Bonds and other securities desire a safe place for their keeping.

It is our plan to enlarge the number of Safe Deposit Boxes, and make a rental charge to meet the operating expenses of this Department. This charge will become effective July 1st, 1919, and a bill will be sent out at that time to the holders of boxes, and if any desire to make any change we will be glad to have them call before the bills are rendered for the ensuing year.

Wages---Our Greatest Item of Expense

Salaries and wages constitute our largest single item of expense. This money, cheerfully and regularly paid to our men and women—working in the service of the public, all of them,—is equal to approximately one-half of our total expenses. During the past three years.

THE AVERAGE WAGE PAID OUR EMPLOYEES HAS INCREASED 54 PER CENT

This, of course, is as it should be. Every single item of their living expenses has increased. It is one of our first duties to see that they are paid a living wage and are fairly compensated for the important work they do.

Throughout the war period we met the necessity for higher wages as we met all other higher costs—without waiting for an increase in rates.

Our job was to serve the public. Therefore, we kept the service going during that critical period; not as efficiently as we desired, but as well as the stress of the times allowed.

As a result of meeting increased costs of wages and material without permitting any interruption in our service to the public,

WE ARE NOW CONFRONTED WITH AN ACTUAL LOSS IN OUR OPERATIONS.

We met rising costs because we believed that in the end the public would not deny us the right to earn a fair return. This is all we ask in our petition for increased revenues now pending before the State Corporation Commission.
